About

I'm an incurably curious person who is always open to discovering something new. I am driven by a constant need for understanding, learning and drawing conclusions from what I've explored.

I am obsessed with improving things. I firmly believe that we all have the choice to make things better. Whether that means challenging stereotypes or asking thought-provoking questions; I'm not afraid of leaving the status quo behind and doing things differently.

I genuinely care about people. I believe that good design based on co-creation and understanding people's needs.

Experience

2018-

UX, UI DESIGNER

Oppi, Budapest (HU)

Currently, I collaborate with a freelance team named Oppi. We craft digital products ranging from smart hotel user interfaces to web pages. I take part in strategic planning and work on UX and UI design.

2010-2018

LEAD DESIGNER (Product, UI, UX)

Winkler & Stenzel Advertising Agency, Budapest (HU) and Hanover (DE)

From branding and crafting valuable products and experiences with a highly skilled team of designers to managing digital transformation and developing product strategies I wore many hats at Winkler & Stenzel agency.

I have also managed to turn the old-school manual catalogue production to an up to date automatized digital process.
